A big “thank you” to Josh Kuchinka for being this week’s guest reporter. If you have a good idea for question of the week and/or want to be a guest reporter for the Eagle’s Eye stop by and see Meloni at the Dowell Info Desk in Dowell 119.

Students! Enter the Earth Day Poster Contest

Poster set-up will take place in the Eagles Nest in the Sahlstrom Conference Center at 11:30 a.m. Judging will begin at noon and continue for approximately one hour. Prizes of $75, $50, and $25 (or their cash equivalent) will be awarded to the student, or group of students for first, second, and third places, respectively. Projects will be judged on content, creativity, professional display, and the students’ ability to verbally communicate their ideas. Presentations will be judged by members of the Concerts & Lectures Committee.

UMC Theater to Perform “Run for Your Wife” April 22-25

Students involved in University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) Theater will perform the comedy “Run for Your Wife” Tuesday, April 22, through Friday, April 25. Performances will run nightly, starting at 7:30 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium on the UMC campus. Tickets can be purchased at the door and cost $1 for UMC students with UCard student ID and $4 for others. “Run for Your Wife,” a British farce by Ray Cooney, is the story of taxi cab driver John Smith, his wife Mary, and his other wife Barbara. He is able to get away with this double life because of his irregular work schedule—that is until he is involved in an accident. When the police come to investigate, complications arise as the harried cabbie tries to keep his two lives separate and make sure his wives don’t find out about each other. The cast, directed by UMC student Marissa Kopy of Big Lake, MN, includes:

- John Smith – Nathan Hoff of Ada, MN
- Mary Smith – Diane Delperdang of Burnsville, MN
- Barbara Smith – Jennifer Orcutt of Conrad, MT
- Stanley Gardner – Daniel Webster of McIntosh, MN
- Detective-Sergeant Troughton – Noelle Jarvis of Eden Prairie, MN
- Detective Sergeant Porterhouse – Matthew Johnson of Bigfork, MN
- Bobby Franklyn – Brandon Sykora of Browns Valley, MN
- Reporter – Kristie Schill of Langdon, ND

Congratulations!

Winners of a $50 gift certificate to the UMC Bookstore are John Pingy and Dane Johnson! Their names were drawn at random from the 174 respondents to the Mid-Term Grade Notification Survey.

Great Conversations set for April 22

The final presentation in the Great Conversations series “Environmental Concerns” will be Tuesday, April 22 at 7:30 p.m. in 220 Dowell Hall. Balancing the safety of our food supply with ecological concerns presents one of the great challenges of the 21st century. U of M professor Dr. Anne Kapuscinski, internationally renowned for her work on the ecological risks of genetically engineered organisms, is the founding Director of the Institute for Social, Economic, and Ecological Sustainability. Margaret Mellon is one of the nation’s most respected experts on biotechnology and food safety. She is Food and Environment Program Director at the Union of Concerned Scientists in Washington, D.C. and currently serves on the USDA’s advisory committee on agricultural biotechnology. This event celebrates the 100th anniversary of the University’s College of Natural Resources.
