Brain Teaser

March 29, 2004
What was the best April Fool’s joke you have ever played on someone or had played on you?

Carrie Koplin
“My Dad was sitting at the breakfast table and told us all the barn was on fire and we all believed him.”

Brandon Sykora
“I told my parents they were going to be grandparents, only it wasn’t a joke.”

Jen Jacobs
“What is April Fools?”

Clothesline Project April 5-8
The Clothesline Project will be displayed in the Eagle’s Nest the week of April 5 through April 8. The Clothesline Project is a national art project started by women in Massachusetts as a memorial to the victims and survivors of domestic violence. The project involves designing shirts which reflect women’s personal experiences with battering, rape, sexual assault, incest, child abuse, and prostitution. The shirts then are hung on a clothesline and displayed in a public location. The purpose is to create a visual memorial to the casualties and survivors of the war against women. Please give some consideration to viewing this display and understand the impact that domestic violence has on all of us. To learn more about the Clothesline Project and the Minnesota Coalition for Battered Women go to the following web site http://www.mcbw.org/

Ambassadors Wanted
Ambassadors is currently undergoing a transformation and will be taking a new role on campus. Ambassadors will continue to be a voluntary organization of students, but will be focusing more on the promotion of UMC to prospective students and their parents, to current UMC students and to alumni.

The Goals of Ambassadors are to:
- Accurately inform prospective students and parents about UMC’s mission and philosophy, academic programs, faculty and students, physical facilities, social opportunities, development programs and student services.
- Personalize the University by making campus visitors feel welcome, comfortable and positive about UMC by demonstrating sincerity, enthusiasm, credibility, interest, and helpfulness.
- Assist with important public relations programs such as special on-campus events, Torch and Shield, and Chancellor or other campus office functions.

We are currently seeking individuals who want to get in on the ground level of this exciting and prestigious organization. Individuals who possess good communication skills, have the ability to motivate a group and are knowledgeable and enthusiastic about UMC are encouraged to apply. It is also required for all members to have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.25. We are seeking to form a group who represent various majors, ethnic backgrounds and hometown communities.

If you know of any outstanding students who you feel would excel in this vital role on campus please encourage them to apply, or forward their names onto either Stacey Grunewald or Lisa Samuelson. Applications are available in the One-Stop and are Due Monday, April 5th.
Three or four childcare providers are needed Tuesday, April 13, from 6:45 to 8:00 p.m. at the Crookston Family Service Center (the Head Start building, formerly Carmen School). Child activities are already planned. As part of the Blue Ribbon Campaign and Month of the Young Child, Parents Helping Parents will be hosting a speaker, Carol Helland, who will be speaking on “Teach Your Children Well.” Please contact Karen Brekken at 926-5655 for more information.

Report on recent Student Concerns

-Paul Christensen - CSA senator and Chair for Student Concerns

- It was a concern that one of the racquet ball courts was being used for storage and students could not play on it – this was due to the tournaments that are being held here at UMC and they will be cleaned out immediately following this weekend
- A student was concerned that the fire extinguisher glass was broken in Skyberg Hall - it was immediately replaced
- The bulletin board between Sahlstrom conference center and Dowell hall was upside down – this has been taken care of
- A student was concerned about the e-mail system and suggested that a size limit be enacted on messages sent as non-attachments – I talked to Jeff Sperling and he said it will be brought up in the next committee meeting

Millionaire Man coming to UMC

On Monday, March 29th, at 8:00 Campus Crusade for Christ will be sponsoring professional speaker Todd Sinelli in Kiehle Auditorium. Todd Sinelli likes to write and speak about words that begin with capital letters: Money, Success, and Dreams. Armed with statistics, questions, and self-effacing humor, Sinelli will provoke your imagination and leave you tapping your head saying one word, “Wow!” Broke at 24. A millionaire at 25. A multi-millionaire at 26. Practically broke again at 28. While working as a professional trader in the financial markets, Todd lost everything he had and then rebuilt his fortune multiple times before the age of 30. Experiential and academic education have been driving forces in Todd’s life. His new ambition is to educate others about how to live your dreams, two words that could change your life, and the secret to always bring rich through the life-changing message contained within True Riches. The Journey Worship Band will be playing at this event.

Brain Teasers

This week's winner is Kelly Bisek. Kelly knew the answer to the March 22 puzzle. He can pick up his free movie pass at the Dowell Info Desk. Can you decipher the simple old saying listed below? For example: “Neophytes' serendipity” would translate to “Beginner’s Luck.” “Surveillance should precede saltation” would translate to “Look before you leap.” Can you guess this week’s puzzle? If you think you know the answer, send an e-mail to melonir. A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to melonir prior to noon on Thursday, April 1. The winner’s name will appear in the April 5 Eagle’s Eye.

All articles that coruscate with respendence are not truly auriferous. All that glitters is not gold. Sorting on the part of mendicants must be interdicted. Can you translate?

Blood Drive

The Anatomy & Physiology class is sponsoring a Blood Drive on Tuesday, April 6 at Lysaker Gymnasium. You can sign up to donate blood March 29 through April 2 in the Sahlstrom Conference Center Lobby.

Informational Session on Women and Heart Disease

In conjunction with Women’s History Monday, there will be a session entitled “Empowering Women to Reduce Risk of Heart Disease”, Tuesday, March 30th, 12:00 to 1:00, SCC 131. Health professionals from RiverView will be on campus to provide us with information related to this topic. A few facts related to this issue: heart disease is the leading cause of death of American women and kills 32% of them; 43% of deaths in American women (or nearly 500,000) are caused by cardiovascular disease (heart disease and stroke) each year; women who smoke risk having a heart attack 19 years earlier than non-smoking women. Heart disease is an important topic for everyone. For those wondering why the focus on women only, please refer to the following web site http://www.womenheart.org/information/women_and_heart_disease_fact_sheet.asp Free refreshments and assorted muffins will be provided. This event is open to everyone.
