Wednesday, October 29

Speaker, Dr. Wesley Perkins 8 p.m. Kiehle
Sponsored by AODAP

M & M Speaker Dr. Kathy Gershman November 3

As part of UMC’s Magnificent Monday series please plan to attend Dr. Kathleen Waldron Gershman’s presentation, entitled “WHAT I WISH I HAD KNOWN, or: How can I get through the semester, the year and my degree.” The presentation will be from Noon to 12:50 p.m. in Brown Dining A & B. Her presentation is designed to be relevant to students, faculty and staff. Dr. Gershman holds Ed.D. and Ed.M. degrees from Harvard University, a B.A. from the University of Massachusetts, and is currently on the education and graduate faculties at the University of North Dakota. She has more than 20 refereed publications and symposia presentations to her credit. Dr. Gershman is a remarkable educator and an excellent speaker. All are welcome, and faculty are encouraged to bring or send their classes.

Social Norms Pioneer H. Wesley Perkins to Visit UMC October 29-30

H. Wesley Perkins, one of the originators and foremost leaders of the social norms approach to substance abuse prevention and health promotion, will visit the UMC campus October 29-30. His book, The Social Norms Approach to Preventing School and College Age Substance Abuse, is one of the promising new approaches to campus alcohol abuse prevention and is essential reading for student personnel administrators and other drug abuse counselors. Currently Perkins is professor of sociology and director of the award-winning Alcohol Education Project at Hobart and William Smith Colleges in Geneva, New York. Perkins has published extensively in alcohol and other drug problems and is a frequent speaker and consultant for educators and health professionals working with youth and young adults. In 1999 he received the Outstanding Service Award from the Network: Addressing Collegiate Alcohol and Other Drug Issues. While at UMC, Perkins will provide training on his social norms approach to faculty, staff, and students. He will present a free public discussion on his work and related issues on Wednesday, October 29, at 7:30 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium. Perkins’ visit is being sponsored by a U.S. Department of Educations grant that UMC received to help prevent high risk drinking behaviors of students.

Pumpkin Carving Contest October 28

Advisor Week Oct. 27-31

October 27-31 will be advisors week brought to you by the CSA. From past survey results it has become evident to us that many students do not take full advantage of the assistance they can receive from their advisors. Therefore, during this week we would like to encourage students to set up a time to meet with their advisors. On Wednesday, October 29th, you will have the opportunity to vote for your advisor to receive the Outstanding Advising Award, to be presented on Friday, October 31st. Wednesday will also be DRESS LIKE YOUR ADVISOR day. We would like to encourage everyone to take part in this event as it will be a great time. Listed below are a few responsibilities as far as student/advisor roles are concerned. Once again take the time to meet with your advisor this week; they are an important asset to your educational experience.

Advisor’s Responsibilities

- helps students with program planning, course selection and scheduling
- helps students gain an understanding of the complete requirements of a program
- helps students maintain satisfactory academic progress
- refers students as needed to appropriate departments for educational, personal or emotional difficulties
- assists students with internship and career placement

Student’s Responsibilities

- takes the initiative to meet with their advisors (advisors do not contact and set up meetings with students under normal circumstances)
- consulting with an advisor before adding or dropping classes and switching majors
- utilizes the support tools and advise advisors have to offer.

Health and Counseling Corner - Depression Education and Screening Day
UMC will host a Depression Education and Screening Day event on Wednesday, November 5, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in Kiehle 116 and Kiehle 105. Professional staff from NW Mental Health Center as well as UMC Student Health and Disability Services will be on hand for an informal discussion and presentation related to depression awareness, treatment options, SAD (Seasonal Affective Disorder) and suicide prevention. UMC students, faculty and staff and the general public are invited to participate in any or all aspects of the event, and will have the opportunity to complete a depression screening survey privately if desired. Printed materials and refreshments will also be available. The entire event is free to all participants. If you think that you, a friend or a family member might be struggling with depression, we urge you to participate in this campus event. Depression is highly treatable; especially when diagnosed and treated early.
