Wizard of Oz Plus Wednesday, January 26

Looking for Courage? How about a Brain? Or maybe a Heart? The Cowardly Lion, Tin Man and the Scarecrow will all be here on Wednesday, January 26 at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium looking for just those items. Stop by and see if you can help. The movie the “Wizard of Oz”, will be shown as well as some extra surprises.
Question of the Week

“What are your thoughts on Prince Harry wearing a Nazi uniform to a costume party?”

Jessica Nokkeley
“It was just a costume party.”

Mike Dockter
“I don’t think it was a huge deal, but I think he should be a little more sensitive because he is in the spotlight.”

Jill Moser
“Just because he is royal it was blown out of proportion and he probably did not mean to offend.”

Counseling and Career Services Events

UMC to Host Third Annual Job & Internship Fair
January 26
UMC’s Third Annual Winter Job & Internship Fair will be held Wednesday, January 26, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Lysaker Gym in the UMC Sports Center. Twenty-three companies are scheduled to attend the event to visit with students about job possibilities and internships. The event is free and open to the public.

For a list of companies attending visit <http://www.crk.umn.edu/people/services/CAREER/2005winterjobfair.htm>.

All students are encouraged to register with Career Services and post their resume on our e-recruiting website. Students will be required to have a resume in order to interview. Students can sign-up for interviews with the companies now at the Career Services Office, 270 Owen Hall. Slots are filling up fast. All students who need help with their resumes can stop by the Career Services Office daily.

UMC’s Third Annual Winter Job & Internship Fair is sponsored by UMC Career Services, Students In Free Enterprise (SIFE) and the Zeta Chapter of Clovia.

In addition to the Job Fair the following companies will be on campus conducting interviews:

♦ University of Minnesota Department of Agronomy and Plant Genetics, January 25, 2005
♦ Land O’ Lakes Purina Feed and Agriliance - Information Session January 25, 6 - 8 p.m., Brown Dining. Interviews will be conducted on January 27, 2005.

For more information or to sign up for interviews, please contact Meloni in Owen Hall 270 or email her at melonir.
Habitat for Humanity – As soon as the temps get above 20 degrees, they will be putting up the sheetrock and putting in the heat. Crews work Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. They usually work from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Lunch is provided on Saturdays. If you are able to help for a couple of hours during the week, that may also work. If you want me to put you on a list to receive the updates and needs, please let Lisa Loegering know.

After School Carnival at Washington School – Tuesday, February 8, 2 – 4:30 p.m. Shoot and print photos of kids, pop and serve popcorn, help with craft activities and activity booths.

Dr. Seuss Birthday Party – Tuesday, March 1, 6 – 7:30 p.m. at Washington School. This is a fun event to promote reading to kids! Hospitality Association Club will be flipping pancakes and making green eggs and ham. Readers’ Theatre will be doing theatrical readings, America Reads tutors will be reading stories, we need people to help in the kitchen, as well as help with reading games, craft activities, read to kids, and help out where needed!

National Youth Service Day – Saturday, April 16, 9:30 a.m. – noon. Join other UMC clubs, CHS’s Leo Club, and other younger kids (potentially 4-H, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Kairos House, church youth groups, etc.) to do service projects in the community. Projects will include landscaping, planting, transplanting flowers, painting, picking up trash, cleaning up a wetland behind CHS, and possible other projects!

Winter Parking
During the winter, after the first initial snowfall and removal, the paint that marks parking spots and illegal spots becomes hard to see, because of this, we are asking you to please pay attention to the following rules:
No parking in front of Stairways (Stay at least 3 inches wide on each side)
No parking in front of any Handicapped Ramps or Entrances (including the one East of the Children’s Center)
No parking to block any Fire Hydrants (Stay at least 5 feet wide on each side)
No parking to block any sidewalks (Stay at least 5 inches wide on each side)
Also, please be respectful of any spots marked with a handicapped sign. Please be sure to leave enough room for a vehicle to park at each handicapped sign (4 feet wide). Any vehicle found disobeying the parking rules will be subject to ticketing and towing. Thanks for your cooperation in making winter parking better.
