“Can I Kiss You?” to be presented February 2

Mike Domitrz will present “Can I Kiss You,” on Wednesday, February 2 at 4 p.m., in Brown Dining and again at 8 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium. Mike Domitrz (a leading authority on consent, healthy dating, and sexual assault awareness) understands that students want to be entertained. They want a compelling and powerful program that each of them can relate to in a meaningful manner. For this reason, Mike takes each audience on a journey from hysterical laughter to hard-hitting questions followed with thought-provoking answers. Mike has a gift of knowing how to relate with each person in the audience, males and females. He even encourages students to argue against his views and ideas.

Blood Drive Sign-Up January 31 to February 4

Students Get Discount Chester Fritz Tickets to “CATS”

Did you know you can get discount tickets to Chester Fritz Events through UMC’s Concerts and Lectures Committee? Tickets purchased through Meloni at the Dowell Info Desk will be discounted by one third. This is GREAT NEWS because the Chester Fritz will be presenting the Broadway Musical “Cats” on February 14 and 15 at 7 p.m. each evening. If you are interested in purchasing tickets, please contact Meloni at melonir or stop by the Dowell Info Desk.

Following is information regarding “Cats.” There’s no better way to introduce your family to the wonders of live theater than with the magic, the mystery, the memory of CATS. What began as a musical about cats after Andrew Lloyd Webber picked up a book of poems in an airport bookshop has become the longest running show in Broadway’s history. Winner of seven Tony Awards including Best Musical, CATS features 20 of Andrew Lloyd Webber’s timeless melodies, including the hit song, “Memory.” Check out the Chester Fritz web site for upcoming events: http://www.cfa.und.edu/cats.html
Assist at Basketball Tournament: Two to four volunteers are needed to help take admissions from 7:30 a.m. to noon, Saturday, February 5 during the basketball tournament sponsored by the Crookston Park and Rec and the Crookston Jaycees. Volunteers are needed at Highland Elementary School and the former junior high school.

Habitat for Humanity – As soon as the temps get above 20 degrees, they will be putting up the sheetrock and putting in the heat. Crews work Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. They usually work from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Lunch is provided on Saturdays. If you are able to help for a couple of hours during the week, that may also work. If you want me to put you on a list to receive the updates and needs, please let Lisa Loegering know.

After School Carnival at Washington School – Tuesday, February 8, 2 – 4:30 p.m. Shoot and print photos of kids, pop and serve popcorn, help with craft activities and activity booths.

Dr. Seuss Birthday Party – Tuesday, March 1, 6 – 7:30 p.m. at Washington School. This is a fun event to promote reading to kids! Hospitality Association Club will be flipping pancakes and making green eggs and ham. Readers’ Theatre will be doing theatrical readings, America Reads tutors will be reading stories, we need people to help in the kitchen, as well as help with reading games, craft activities, read to kids, and help out where needed!

National Youth Service Day – Saturday, April 16, 9:30 a.m. – noon. Join other UMC clubs, CHS’s Leo Club, and other younger kids (potentially 4-H, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Kairos House, church youth groups, etc.) to do service projects in the community. Projects will include landscaping, planting, transplanting flowers, painting, picking up trash, cleaning up a wetland behind CHS, and possible other projects!

Great Conversations Tuesday, February 8

The Great Conversations series will continue on Tuesday, February 8 at 7:30 p.m. in Dowell Hall Room 220. The presentation is entitled, “Gender and Race in Medical Treatment.” Two leading figures in women’s health discuss the debate over the relevance of race in determining preventive medicine and the disparities in access to quality health care for patients determined by gender and ethnicity.

Anne Taylor is Professor of Cardiology, Associate Dean of the Medical School, and Director of the University of Minnesota’s National Center for Excellence in Women’s Health. From 2001-2004, she was Director of the Association of Black Cardiologists Women’s Health Center. She chaired the first national clinical study on heart failure in African Americans which lead to the first drug developed specifically for a single ethnic group and ignited a debate on the relevance of race in determining medical treatment. She is the author of The African American Woman’s Guide to a Healthy Heart, which addresses gender and race disparities in access to quality healthcare.

Vivian Pinn is the Director of the Office of Research on Women’s Health at the National Institutes of Health, a post she has held since 1991. She came to the NIH from Howard University College of Medicine where she had been Professor and Chair of the Department of Pathology since 1982. Dr. Pinn has long been active in efforts to improve the health and career opportunities for women and minorities. She is the recipient of numerous awards including the James D. Bruce Memorial Award for distinguished contributions in preventive medicine from The American College of Physicians, the Athena Award from the Partnership for Women’s Health at Columbia University, and the Catherine McFarland Award from the University of Pennsylvania for distinguished service in women’s health.
