Attention Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities who need academic accommodations such as text tapes, note-taking assistance, developing study plans, and strengthening study skills, or arranging for exam accommodations must meet with Laurie Wilson in Owen 270 and provide documentation of their disability prior to receiving services. You may drop by Owen 270, email lwilson for an appointment, or call 8587 to schedule. Students who make their arrangements early in the semester and follow through with accommodations have a much better chance of being successful in their courses and getting needed assistance. Thank you and welcome to the new semester.

GLBT Student Scholarship Fund

Founded in 1998 by University of Minnesota alumni, faculty, & staff, the U of M GLBT Student Scholarship Fund awards three $1,000 scholarships every academic year. Campus Parking Permits Parking permits are available for purchase in the Business Office, 121 Selvig Hall. Vehicles not displaying a valid University parking permit will be ticketed beginning Tuesday, September 7.

Community Events

Crookston will be one of the communities along Highway 75 to participate in the second annual King of Trails Marketplace, scheduled for Saturday, September 11. The King of Trails is the designation given by the state of Minnesota in 2001 to Highway 75. Billed as “400 miles of great bargains from the Canadian border to the Iowa border,” the King of Trails Marketplace is expected to generate much attention and publicity all along the route. Organizers are seeking vendors with arts and crafts, antiques, collectibles, fresh produce, flowers, books, furniture, as well as flea market and garage sale items. The Crookston Marketplace will be located in the Bremer Bank parking lot at Broadway and Third. The Marketplace will be held outdoors from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., rain or shine. In case of dangerous weather conditions, the marketplace will be at the Civic Arena.

No Doctor on Campus September 8

Dr. Kanten will not be on campus Wednesday, September 8. Please contact Altru, Crookston Clinic (281-9100) if you need medical assistance. Sorry for the inconvenience.

Brain Teasers

Allison Kluck is last week’s winner. Allison knew that the puzzle below on the left meant “History Repeats Itself”. Allison can pick up her free movie pass at the Dowell Info Desk. Can you guess this week’s puzzle (below on the right)? If you think you know the answer, send an e-mail to melonir. A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Friday, September 10. The winner’s name will appear in the September 14 Eagle’s Eye.

Refund Deadline Schedule — Changes in Registration (Cancel/Add)

Procedures for adding or canceling classes are different if you use web self-registration than if you are required to register in-person (see note at bottom of this message). Deadlines are also different for part-term courses. See pages 25-26 of the Fall 2004 Class Schedule http://www.crk.umn.edu/register/schedule/fall2004/sect5-9.pdf for detailed information.

To change your course load you must either register in-person or register on-line.

1. In-person registration:
   a. Fill out a Registration form available at the One Stop Student Center (170 Owen).
   b. Obtain instructor, adviser, or Academic Standards & Policy Committee approval if required.
   c. Turn in the signed, completed form at the Stop Student Center (170 Owen).

2. On-line registration:
   a. Cancel/add on-line at http://www.crk.umn.edu/register/register.htm (your registration change is not complete until you create a study list).

If you decide to stop attending a course or courses for which you are registered, you must officially cancel. Only by canceling the courses can you be released from your responsibility for full tuition and fees for courses listed on your study list. Failure to attend class does not constitute cancellation.

The following table summarizes the requirements and deadline dates to change your registration (cancel/add).
