“Just the Facts” about personal safety

On Wednesday, November 3, at 6:30 p.m. in Brown A&B, UMC will host Sheriff Mark LeTexier and a staff person from Polk County Coordinated Victim’s Services for a presentation related to personal safety awareness and sexual assault prevention. The program is called “Just the Facts” about personal safety. The presentation will last one hour and presenters will be available for any Q &A time that is needed. Sheriff LeTexier and PCCVS staff will share information on date rape drugs, risky relationships, and staying safe. Participants also will be asked to complete a brief questionnaire related to what they may have learned, how it can be applied in their lives, and what difference that knowledge might make. If there are a sufficient number of responses, we will publish them for the student body to benefit from and reflect upon. This event precedes the “Mr. UMC” contest beginning at 8 p.m. in Kiehle. Sponsored by: The UMC Committee for Sexual Assault Prevention and Personal Safety Awareness.

Brain Teasers

Gavin Leake is last week’s winner. Gavin knew that the puzzle below on the left meant “Without a Second glance.” He can pick up his free movie pass at the Dowell Info Desk. Can you guess this week’s puzzle (below on the right)? If you think you know the answer, send an e-mail to melonir. A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Wednesday, November 3. The winner’s name will appear in the November 8 Eagle’s Eye.

Crookston Artist Series Presents Wieska & Hubert Szymczynski

Crookston Artist Series presents Wieska & Hubert Szymczynski, Saturday, November 13, 2004 at 7:30 p.m. at the Crookston High School Auditorium. Ten FREE tickets are available for this event at the Dowell Info Desk. Classically cool husband and wife, Wieska and Hubert Szymczynski live in Vaxjo, Sweden. She is a world-class violinist and concertmaster of a leading chamber orchestra. He is a composer, multi-instrumentalist, cabaret songwriter, and a passionate jazz pianist. As Wieska plays the original score, Hubert improvises at the same time, and and it all comes out “classically cool.” They started blending their own style together to entertain family and friends, but a short appearance on Swedish TV was enough to create an unbelievable demand for live performances. So they expanded their repertoire, making this unique duo possible. Wieska and Hubert graduated with honors from the Academy of Music in Poznan, Poland, and are now professors of music academies and universities in Sweden. The ten FREE tickets to this event are sponsored by UMC Concerts and Lectures.
