Comedian Robbie Printz Wednesday, March 8

Comedian Robbie Printz will perform in Kiehle Auditorium on Wednesday, March 8 at 8 p.m. Robbie Printz has been seen on NBC, MTV and Comedy Central. The performance Robbie Printz brings to any venue is not easily forgotten. Baldwin Wallace summed it up best when they wrote, “It was great! Absolutely perfect! Everyone loved him.” Robbie recently won the 2002 Boston Comedy Festival. The Boston Herald wrote, “Printz delivered another red-hot set...” and the Telegraph wrote, “every time he talks, people laugh - nonstop.” Robbie has performed at the best comedy clubs across the nation, as well as numerous colleges and corporate events. His performance is a reminder of childhood wonders and adulthood absurdities; delivered with high energy and a fast pace that keeps audiences laughing from start to finish. FREE admittance to all UMC Students. This event is sponsored by SPACE.

Tin Roof Tango Monday, March 13

The Crookston Artist Series presents “Tin Roof Tango” on Monday, March 13, 2006 at 7:30 p.m., in the Crookston High School Auditorium. Ten FREE tickets are available to this event at the Student Center Information Desk. Take five talented musicians, add over thirty acoustic instruments, and you have the recipe for TIN ROOF TANGO’s “Big Acoustic World Show.” Featuring selections from South America, Africa, Australia, and the Orient, these folks entertain with music ranging from an Irish jig played on the Bombarde to a Bolivian melody that wafts from the kena. With a generous helping of American and Celtic music, TIN ROOF TANGO pours on Old Time Fiddling, Cajun dance tunes, intense bluegrass and jazz with the trademark TIN ROOF TANGO high energy, acoustic fusion sound. If you don’t have plans for Spring Break stop by the Info Desk and pick up a free ticket.
Question of the Week

“What are your Spring Break plans?”

Tracy Nyhus

“I am going home for 2 1/2 days and then heading to Kansas for softball.”

Pat Dreher

“That question is way too depressing!”

Kami Lucius with Christina Posl

“I am going to Florida!”

A Couple of Reminders

The following are UMC Policies regarding materials transmission via your computer and e-mail guidelines:

Transmission of any materials in violation of any U.S. or state organization is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to:

- copyrighted material, threatening or obscene material, or materials protected by trade secret. Use for product advertisement or political lobbying is also prohibited. Students must be sensitive to the public nature of shared facilities, and take care not to display on screens in such locations images, sounds or messages which could create an atmosphere of discomfort or harassment for others. You must also refrain from transmitting to others in any location inappropriate images, sounds, or messages which might reasonably be considered harassing.

UMC’s E-mail Guidelines:

Campus computing resources, including e-mail, may not be used for illegal or unauthorized purposes including:

• Harassment
• Destruction of or damage to equipment, software, or data belonging to others
• The disruption or unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications

Using e-mail to participate in illegal acts is, itself, illegal and may result in prosecution by state and federal authorities. Use of e-mail for private business purposes unrelated to the University is NOT allowed. You are responsible for using system resources wisely. If you use the system in ways that are judged excessive or wasteful, your access to the system may be taken away, and you may be subject to University disciplinary procedures. E-mail is a powerful tool. Used carelessly, it can annoy other people and damage your reputation. Used intelligently, it can make all of our jobs easier.
