Ask Pam

Dear Pam, Why did you move the Golden Eagle Sculpture and what’s the big deal about it anyway?
Signed Matt
Matt, Thanks for the question and I am sure others have wondered about it as well. For each new building that is built in the state of Minnesota 1% of the money must go to public art. We were able to commission the Golden Eagle sculpture from Bennet Brien a Native American Artist. The sculpture was actually completed about a year ahead of the student center being completed so it was temporarily located on the mall but has been moved to its permanent location in front of the Prairie room and the Prairie garden. It is supposed to symbolize a council fire and the smoke rising that forms into a Golden Eagle which of course is our mascot. Thanks for asking Matt and I hope you go out and look at it now that you know the history.
