Performance Counts Week

Monday, October 17 - 5 K Run

Tuesday, October 18 - Comedian Mark Lundholm, Kiehle Auditorium, 8 p.m.
 Funny man Mark Lundholm is a professional mistake-maker. His resume includes positions such as criminal, street addict, closet wino, mental patient, catholic altar boy, and divorced father of two. Mark knows about pain and gain in life. His insight into the inherent irony of it all forms a unique foundation for his theatre show, stand-up comedy show and inspirational speaking engagements. Mark is the creator of the one-man stage play about chances and choices, Addicted ... a comedy of substance. It is fiercely funny and severely dysfunctional. This theatre show examines distractions, obsessions and addictions in a roller coaster joy ride of laughter, love, loss, and lessons in real life. Addicted ... a comedy of substance is directed by Bob Balaban and produced by The William Morris Agency and Clear Channel Entertainment. In addition to his one-man theater show, Mark headlines in national A-list comedy clubs. He is also a seasoned motivational speaker, presenting at corporate events, correctional facilities and colleges; and at conferences for counselors, physicians and other health care professionals. Mark says about his career, “More is better? Sometimes it is. I am living proof that substance abuse is marketable.”

Wednesday, October 19 - Game Show Gurus and their Trivia Game, Kiehle Auditorium, 8 p.m.

Thursday, October 20 - Police Chief Tim Motherway and the DUI goggles, On the Mall from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Ask Pam

Dear Pam, what happens with the evaluations we do at the end of the semester for our classes and instructors? Signed JB

Dear JB,
This is a good question and one I am sure other students have wondered about. The evaluations are summarized by Tom Mulvaney and a summary report is sent to the faculty member and a copy to the department chair. This is sent anonymously so be sure to be honest in your assessment. It is then up to the department chair to use this information in an evaluation with the faculty member. Thanks for asking, Pam
