Acapella Group Naturally 7 Tuesday, March 6

A cappella music group, Naturally 7, introduce their unique sound during a concert on Tuesday, March 6, 2007 at 8 p.m. The concert will take place in the Kiehle Auditorium. UMC students are free. There will be a $5 admission fee for all non-UMC students. The idea for Naturally 7 was conceived in New York City in 1999. The “band” started as more of a traditional a cappella singing group, meaning singing without any instrumental accompaniment. Wanting to be unique, they abandoned the a cappella style and set out to develop a new sound that they now call ‘vocal play’. Rather than singing without instruments, vocal play is singing ‘as’ instruments. Band members of Naturally 7 demonstrate vocal ability by becoming the musical instruments with their voices. Every sound is created from the human voice. This event is sponsored by the UMC Student Programming & Activities for Campus Entertainment (S.P.A.C.E.). For more information on the concert, contact Lisa Samuelson, director of student activities, at 218-281-8507 (samue026@umn.edu).

Deanna Latson to Speak March 7

UMC welcomes internationally recognized nutritional educator Deanna Latson to present her acclaimed Eat Right! Feel Good! Look Great! presentation on Wednesday, March 7, at 8 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium. Latson has spoken to hundreds of thousands at universities and companies around the world and has been nominated as Speaker of the Year every year since 2001 by meeting planners and activities programmers. Latson is a clinically certified nutritionist and a member of the Wellness Council of America. She will be sharing with the audience her personal story about her own road to great health and share nutritionally sound advice that can change lives. “I had the opportunity to hear Deanna Latson speak with a group of students at a regional conference in spring 2006,” said Lisa Samuelson, director of Student Activities/Student Center at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. “She literally brought us to tears with her powerful story. She truly is a captivating speaker with a great deal of expertise.” Deanna Latson’s Eat Right! Feel Good! Look Great! presentation is free and open to the public. The event is sponsored by University of Minnesota, Crookston Concerts and Lectures Committee.
Dear Curious,

Thanks for the question. One dollar of student fee money goes into a budget for publications. Out of this per student, per year we pay printing of the Eagle’s Eye as well as the monthly calendar. We still print 75 copies of the Eagle’s Eye as some students enjoy reading a paper copy instead of the on-line version. It also works well as a recruitment tool for students visiting campus. We also pay for the movie passes that students can win by answering the brain teaser. This fund also pays for software to continue to produce the Eagle’s Eye each and every week. The income generated from advertisement in the Eagle’s Eye only amounts to about $150 per year. This money is added to the amount collected from fees and helps to offset the costs listed above. Hope this answers your question.

Your Pal,
Regal

Dear Regal,

Who would I address a complaint/concern to regarding a professor?
Anonymous

Dear Anonymous,

First of all thanks for writing! Assuming you have tried to talk to the professor, the next step would be to contact the Head of the Department the professor is a part of. We currently have five departments: Agriculture, Department Head Dr. Ron Del Vecchio; Natural Resources, Department Head Dr. Daniel Svedarsky; Business, Department Head Dr. Sue Brorson; Math, Science and Technology, Department Head Dr. David DeMuth; and Arts, Humanity and Social Sciences, Department Head, Bill Peterson. If you still are unable to resolve your issue your next step would be to contact Dr. Tom Baldwin, Sr. Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs. Hope this helps!

Your Pal,
Regal

Do you or someone you “know” have a problem they need help with? If so, just ask Regal! Ask about life, love, school, or just something that you have been pondering. Email Meloni Rasmussen to have your anonymous question sent to Regal the Eagle. (Please keep in mind that Regal simply offers suggestions, and that it is still up to you to choose your own path in life.)
