Reclaiming Faith: In the Spirit of Justice is the title of a provocative outreach concert by One Voice Mixed Chorus to be held on November 10, 2006, at 11a.m. in Kiehle Auditorium. One Voice Mixed Chorus, a gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender (GLBT) chorus, is based in Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minn.

Combining music from a variety of spiritual traditions with powerful story telling, the concert explores the “hot topic” of discrimination and homophobia in spiritual communities in ways that are thought-provoking and artistically compelling.

One Voice Mixed Chorus is the largest GLBT chorus in North America with 80 singing members spanning ages 16 to 68. Appearing in Crookston as part of an outreach tour, One Voice is traveling to five cities in greater Minnesota and Winnipeg, MB from Nov. 9-12. Esteemed for their musical excellence, diverse repertoire, humor and a strong commitment to community outreach, One Voice will perform in support of communities and organizations where social change regarding GLBT individuals is active and vibrant.
On Tuesday, November 7, midterm elections will take place in Minnesota. All University classes will be held on that date. Instructors are expected to make reasonable accommodations for students who can only vote during class time. Students who will be late to, or absent from, class in order to vote on Tuesday, November 7 should speak with their instructor in advance of that date.

Counseling Center News

Depression: Define It. Defeat It. According to recent statistics, nearly 20% of college students experience some level of depression. Depression is highly treatable when identified early. Come and hear as several young people describe their experiences with depression. Learn more about what depression is and is not, and how you can help yourself or a friend to define it and defeat it. Staff from Student Health and Counseling will share materials and answer questions about depression, the “blues” and Seasonal Affective Disorder or SAD.
