Spring Registration November 13 - 30

Student self-registration using the World Wide Web is available to most students. In-person registration is available to all students at the One Stop Student Service Center, 170 Owen Hall.

Eligibility for Web Self-Registration
Students must meet two criteria in order to be eligible to self-register using the web:

1. You must be an officially admitted degree-seeking student (PSEOA, Non-Degree, and College in the High School students are NOT eligible), and
2. You must have a UMC cumulative GPA of at least a 2.00, or be in your first term of enrollment at UMC. All other students MUST register in-person.

All in-person registrations require adviser signature approval.

General Information for Self-registration
Registration is available on the World Wide Web at your scheduled time in the registration queue. That is the time when you will be allowed to register for classes on the Web or in person (you can register on or at any time after your time in the rotation). You can find out your scheduled registration time by logging on to the web registration site, or by referring to the printed Registration Queue in the class schedule.

Web Self-registration is available Monday - Thursday from 7:00 a.m.-12:00 midnight, Friday from 7:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m., and on Saturday from 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m., except on official University holidays. In-person registration is available at the Office of the Registrar, 170 Owen Hall, 8:30 a.m.-4:15 p.m., Monday - Friday.

College 101 “Leavin’ On A Jet Plane”

Have you ever considered studying abroad. If you want to hear more about this awesome opportunity plan on attending College 101 “Leavin’ On A Jet Plane”. The workshop will be held Monday, November 13 from 7 - 8 p.m. in Bede Ballroom C,D, & E. This event is sponsored by Student Experience and Study Abroad.

Counseling Center News

Depression: Define It. Defeat It. According to recent statistics, nearly 20% of college students experience some level of depression. Depression is highly treatable when identified early. Come and hear as several young people describe their experiences with depression. Learn more about what depression is and is not, and how you can help yourself or a friend to define it and defeat it. Staff from Student Health and Counseling will share materials and answer questions about depression, the “blues” and Seasonal Affective Disorder or SAD.

Join us by the big screen TV in the Student Center on Thursday, November 16 from 1 to 2 p.m. If you are interested in the topic, but this time does not work for you, see Stacey in Student Health or Laurie in Owen 270.

The UMC Committee on Access for Persons with Disabilities will meet for the fall term on Wednesday, November 15, at 9 a.m. in the Minnesota Room. Students, faculty or staff who wish to bring items forward for discussion are encouraged to email those items to Laurie Wilson for inclusion on the agenda. The meeting is open to the campus community. Disability accommodations will be provided upon request.

Flu Shots

Flu shots will be available on Monday, December 4, 9:00 to 12:00, Bede Ballroom. UMC faculty and staff can receive the vaccine free of charge as a benefit of the UPlan. Students can receive the vaccine during that time also, but will be charged $20.00. Please contact Stacey Grunewald, 8512, with any questions. The following link contains information from the CDC about seasonal influenza http://www.cdc.gov/flu/keyfacts.htm. For Helpful Information regarding Avian Flu/Pandemic Flu, please refer to the following website from the CDC http://www.cdc.gov/flu/keyfacts.htm

Great American Smokeout

If you smoke, the American Cancer Society can help you kick the habit. And there are many ways for you to double your odds of succeeding. It starts with planning your quit attempt. Why not give up cigarettes for the day? Maybe forever? On Thursday, November 16, 2006 during the 30th annual Great American Smokeout? Stop by the information booth being sponsored by Student Health or check our the following website. Good luck! http://www.cancer.org/docroot/PED/ped_10_4.asp
