What Does Freedom Mean to You?

In honor of Veteran’s Day, CSA is sponsoring an event that invites students, staff and faculty to submit a poem, story, pictures, piece of artwork etc... expressing what freedom means to them. The items will be posted in the display case across from the Minnesota Room. Please submit all pieces to the CSA Office in the Leadership Room by Monday, November 5.

Veteran’s Day Program November 9

A program to honor UMC’s veterans as well as all veterans will be held, Friday, November 9 at Noon in the Eagles Nest. SSG Nathan Modeen from Company B 2nd Battalion 136th Infantry of the Minnesota Army National Guard here in Crookston will be the speaker. SSG Modeen recently returned from a 22 month deployment to Iraq preceded by a 10 month deployment to Bosnia. The UMC band under the direction of George French will provide music. A wreath will be laid at the monument at the entrance of campus. Readings will be provided by Cooperative Campus Ministry. The program will conclude with cake and apple cider in the Eagles Nest. Please come out and say Thank You to our veterans.

If you have ever had the experience of engaging in conversation with Matthew P. Scheerer, you will know just what he is thinking. Why? Because he will tell you. Matty (as he is known by his closest friends and enemies) is a senior at UMC majoring in sport and recreation management. He is serving a term as senator in the CSA, but more notably he is the president of SAAC, Student Athletic Advisory Committee. Do you remember the dunk tank with proceeds going toward the Make A Wish Foundation? Yea, all Matty. “The Dunk tank was really cool because not only did we raise money for Make A Wish, but it was fun to dunk UMC faculty and staff. Especially Sara Kaiser, that was clutch.”

Matty is also the starting right tackle on the UMC football team, and contributed to the 42 – 38 win over the Moorhead State Dragons this past Saturday. “There was no way we were leaving Moorhead without a win. We all felt it. Especially Ron.”

In his spare time, Matty likes to cook, do yoga, go running, taste fine wine (not on campus of course), take stats for UMC sporting events, listen to music, and contemplate the complexities of life while gazing up at the stars above. Like I said, if you ever want to know what Matty is thinking, just ask and you shall receive.

UMC Students Raise Over $100 for the Make-a-Wish Foundation
Story written by Matt Scheerer, Sports Information Intern

UMC faculty and staff members volunteered their time to sit in a dunk tank on October 26 on the Crookston Campus. The volunteers braved harsh winds and bitter cold to raise money for the Make-a-Wish foundation. The event capped off Eaglemania Week on campus and raised over $140 for the organization. The event was sponsored by UMC’s Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Golden Eagle Football Team Defeats MSU Moorhead With Late Game Heroics
Submitted Chris Vito

The UMC Golden Eagle football team had a mission Saturday. It was to pick up their first Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference victory of the season. The task at hand was not going to be an easy one for the Golden Eagles. However, UMC was not to be denied as Jordan Grafsgaard (Sr., TE, Ulen, Minn.) scored off of a 20 yard pass from David White (Jr., QB, Detroit, Mich.) with eight seconds left to play to defeat MSU Moorhead by a score of 42-38 in Moorhead, Minn.

The Golden Eagles looked to be the superior team early on as they took a 7-0 second quarter lead on a touchdown reception with 9:25 remaining in the third quarter to put MSUM up 28-14. The Golden Eagles responded with their work horse John again who popped off an eight yard scamper to bring U of M, Crookston back within a touchdown at 28-21. The Dragons closed out the third quarter with a 22 yard field goal by Kyle Wilcox to take a 31-21 lead.

It looked as MSU Moorhead might have the Golden Eagles right where they wanted them until a wild 5:22 of football game which saw 28 total points scored occurred at the end of the fourth quarter. It all started when Reggie Frazier (Sr., RB, Los Angeles, Cal.) hit the end zone with a two yard run to bring U of M, Crookston within three at 31-28. After holding the Dragons to a four and out, the Golden Eagles got the ball back. Eight plays later, White found Aaron Wall (So., WR, New Orleans, Louisiana) with a 22 yard pass to give U of M, Crookston their first lead since the first half at 35-31. The lead was to be short lived though as Long hooked up with Bert Smith on a 24 yard pass with 53 seconds remaining to put MSUM up 38-35.

Starting with the ball on their own 47 yard line and 47 seconds remaining, the Golden Eagles had a tall order ahead of them. White hit John on a 22 yard reception to the MSUM 31 yard line. He followed this up with an 11 yard rush to the Dragon's 20. After an incomplete pass, White found Grafsgaard with 47 seconds remaining to put MSUM up 38-35. After a 35 yard kick off by Stan Shurson (Fr., K, Ramona, Cal.) and a six yard return by Donta Holloway, MSUM took over on their own 41. After a time out, Long completed a pass to Jabari Taylor but Ollie Owens (Sr., DL, Raleigh, Mississippi) forced a fumble that was recovered by U of M, Crookston’s Tayler Michels (Jr., SS, Pelican Rapids, Minn.) to end the game.

Eric John had a stellar day for the Golden Eagles leading the NSIC in total assists (13) and assists in a game (0.65). Along the way, she became the school’s all-time leader in several categories including total assists (17), assists in a season (13) and assists in a game (five against Presentation College on September 2, 2007). Kiely also ranks second in games played and games started (75). She ended the season ranked fourth in total assists and eighth in assists per game in the NCAA.
Brain Teasers

Last week's winner is Jeffrey Wilson who knew the puzzle below (left) meant “In Between Jobs.” Jeffrey can pick up his free movie pass from Meloni in 236 Student Center. Can you guess this week’s puzzle (below on the right)? If you think you know the answer, send an e-mail to melonir. A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, November 8. The winner’s name will appear in the November 12, 2007 Eagle’s Eye.
