Volunteer Programs

Please contact Lisa Loegering at loege005@umn.edu about these volunteer opportunities unless otherwise noted.

The 5th Annual In the Spirit of Cinco de Mayo Celebration will be held Friday, April 12 and will require LOTS of volunteers! Students are needed to assist with children’s art activities, give tours of art from local artists, direct guests to different areas on campus, assist with silent auction and a dance. Sign-up with Laurie Wilson in Owen 270B. Volunteers receive a free t-shirt and are encouraged to participate in the free meal and activities either before or after their shift.

Humane Society: The Humane Society is run by volunteers. There is a huge need for volunteers to help clean cages from 9:30 – 10:30 or 11 a.m. weekdays and 10 a.m. on weekends. Additionally, dogs love to be walked! Get some exercise and share a walk with a very appreciative friend! The Polk County Humane Society is located at 720 East Robert Street. Please contact them at 281-7225 to schedule a time to volunteer.

International Dinner Series
Travel the world and never leave campus during the popular International Dinner Series at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. Dinners in the 2013 series feature Egypt, Canada, and Africa and are scheduled for March 4, 11, 25, and April 3. All dinners begin at 6 p.m. in Bede Ballroom, Sargeant Student Center. Tickets for the dinner series are available by contacting Rae French at 218-281-8339 (rfrench@umn.edu). Student tickets are $7.00 or your meal plan. Tickets are limited.
“The Power of Egypt” is the focus of the first dinner in the series on Monday, March 4. The following Monday, March 11, will highlight the “Canadian Difference,” and the organization Change Africa will be in the spotlight on Monday evening, March 25. Students representing each of the featured countries will share their favorite dishes and a special presentation related to their home country.
The series concludes with an international dinner and showcase on Wednesday, April 4. The final event is a dinner hosted by the International Multicultural Club and includes talent showcase, along with demonstrations, table displays, and entertainment from countries all over the world. At 4:30 p.m. students will present a showcase of talent followed by the dinner at 6 p.m.

UMC Women’s Basketball Takes Down NSIC North Leading St. Cloud State 75-67
By Jordan Prill, Sports Information Intern

The Golden Eagles women’s basketball team defeated Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference North Division leading St. Cloud State University Huskies 75-67 Friday night at Lysaker Gymnasium. UMC was led by Katrina Moenkedick (Fr., F, Perham, Minn) who scored 19 points and pulled in nine rebounds in the victory. UMC improves to 8-17 (5-16 NSIC) on the season while the Huskies fall to 17-8 (13-8 NSIC). The Golden Eagles lost to the Huskies 64-54 on December 8 at Halenbeck Hall.

The first half featured plenty of back and forth action with eight lead changes and four ties. The Huskies used a strong inside game to score 18 points in the paint in the opening half (compared to six for UMC). SCSU jumped out to an early 16-11 lead on the back of eight points from junior Sam Price in the first seven minutes of the half. The Golden Eagle defense forced 17 turnovers in the half, resulting in 17 points off turnovers for UMC.

UMC battled back when Ebony Livingston (So., G, Minneapolis, Minn) scored 8 of her 11 first half points over a two and a half minute span, which included a pair of 3-pointers to put the Golden Eagles up 29-22. The Golden Eagles had 18 points from their bench in the opening half, while SCSU’s reserves only managed six. UMC would hold on to the lead until Price put in a layup and drained a three to lead the Huskies to a 40-36 halftime lead.

The second half stayed true to the exciting nature of the first as UMC took the lead only three minutes into the half on two Ashley Martell (So., G, Somerset, Wis) free-throws. However the Huskies would catch fire over the next four minutes, going on a 12-2 run highlighted by three straight possessions resulting in 3-point makes for SCSU. UMC answered back immediately going on a 10-0 run over the next two minutes and five seconds, highlighted by an Erika McRoberts (Fr., F, Byron, Minn) layup to take a 56-53 lead.

While the Huskies dominated the paint in the first half the Golden Eagles flipped the script in the second. UMC outscored SCSU 22-4 in the paint in the second half, holding the Huskie shooters to only a 26.7% (8-30) shooting percentage in the period. The game remained tied at 56 for two and a half minutes until Moenkedick put in a layup with 7:46 remaining to take the lead. Jacy Christenson (Jr., G, Shoreview, Minn) entered the game for the first time and quickly hit two shots from beyond the arc to bring the UMC lead to 66-61 with 5:33 remaining. The Golden Eagle bench would account for 34 of the team’s 75 points.

Brittani Wiese (Sr., G, Albertville, Minn) did not score a point until she put in a layup with 2:28 remaining in the game to bring the Golden Eagle lead to 71-67. Wiese went on the score the last six points of the game as the Huskies were held scoreless for the last 3:36 of the contest, bringing the final score to 75-67.

For more information, visit the Golden Eagle Athletics Web site at www.goldeneaglesports.com.
Winners will qualify for the Region 10 Tournament in Fargo on March 2nd with all expenses paid and transportation will be provided.

Signups will be available at the Information Desk until 7 p.m. on Wednesday, February 27th. There will be NO registration on the day of the event.

You may participate in both tournaments.

After graduating from Alexandria Technical and Community College in 1979, Blashack Strahan began managing her father’s local café and in 1989 opened her first entrepreneurial effort: a retail gift basket shop.

In 1993, she liquidated her retail business but continued to sell gift baskets to corporate and direct-mail clients. Blashack Strahan then got an opportunity to promote these baskets in a holiday crafters’ hometour. She set out samples of gourmet food items and experienced remarkable sales. Later, she realized the power of sampling and the idea for Tastefully Simple was born.

Today Tastefully Simple is a multiple award-winning $100 million company with more than 300 employees and some 21,000 independent consultants. Blashack Strahan is recognized as an exceptional CEO, having won numerous awards for her achievements and unique philosophies of positivity and abundance.

Small Beginnings and Big Dreams
Jill will share three success factors for entrepreneurs and her straight-forward philosophy for building a multi-million dollar business.

This week the Eagle’s Eye introduces new Brain teasers, which is called “Rebus Puzzles.” A REBUS is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is?

Example)

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Can you guess? That’s great! Now wake up your brain and best guess what is it below:

Answer of last week was “Vitamin A deficiency” and winner is Christopher Stultz. He can pick up a free movie pass from Meloni in 236 Sargeant Student Center. If you think you know the answer of this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to meloni (mleonir@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, February 28, 2013. The winner’s name will appear in the March 4, 2013 Eagle’s Eye.

Last week’s winner is Reno Williams. They can pick up a gift card from Meloni in 236 Sargeant Student Center. Have some fun browsing through the Eagle’s Eye & earn some freebies while you’re at it! Browse through the articles in the Eagle’s Eye and find the answers to the questions. When you have found them email the Editor at melonir@umn.edu to earn a chance to win a free $10.00 gift card.

1. What date the NDSU Career Expo for business major will be held?
2. Name the NSLS Speaker in this week
