LGBT History Month
LGBT History Month is a month-long annual observance of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender history, and the history of the gay rights and related civil rights movements. It is observed during October in the United States, to include National Coming Out Day on October 11.[1] In the United Kingdom, it is observed during February, to coincide with a major celebration of the 2005 abolition of Section 28, which had the effect of prohibiting schools from discussing LGBT issues or counselling LGBT or questioning youth. -WIKIPEDIA

Background
In 1994, Rodney Wilson, a Missouri high school teacher, believed a month should be dedicated to the celebration and teaching of gay and lesbian history, and gathered other teachers and community leaders. They selected October because public schools are in session and existing traditions, such as Coming Out Day (October 11), occur that month.

Gay and Lesbian History Month was endorsed by GLAAD, the Human Rights Campaign, the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, the National Education Association, and other national organizations. In 2006, Equality Forum assumed responsibility for providing content, promotion and resources for LGBT History Month. - www.lgbthistorymonth.com

Question #2: What is LGBT History Month? Briefly explain.
Question #3: (Fill in the blank) In January, after the new residence hall is complete, students will also have 24-hour access to the classroom lobby of that new building.
UMC will add an extra late evening study area on campus

Kiehle 116 will now be open to UMC students and their study partners until midnight Monday through Friday. This additional space will provide commuter and resident students with an extra study area after the UMC Library closes and visitors are asked to leave the residence halls. There will be some groups utilizing Kiehle 116 until approximately 8:00 p.m., however students can utilize the room to study anytime the room is available. This room will also be open from 9:00 p.m. to midnight on Saturday and Sunday. The security locks on the south entrance doors of Kiehle Auditorium will be programmed accordingly to grant building access for these extended hours.

This new late night location will give students access to room 116, the internet, restrooms and a pay phone. Interior hall doors will limit access to other parts of the building. Once inside, students can remain past midnight but the exterior doors the Kiehle Rotunda will lock automatically. A Campus Security Officer will be making rounds. Security can also be contacted at 289-0565, as needed.

In addition to this late night location, the Evergreen Grill (EGG) will remain open until midnight Sunday through Thursday and until 1:00 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Students are also permitted to remain in the area after the automatic door locks are engaged. The EGG provides student access to the internet, restrooms and a printer.

In January, after the new residence hall is complete, students will also have 24-hour access to the classroom lobby of that new building. The new space will give students and student workgroups around-the-clock access to a study area, internet, restrooms, vending, local phone, and two large display screens to review and rehearse presentations.

Please contact Student Affairs (281-8572 or x-8572 from a campus phone), the Academic Assistance Center (x8555) or the Crookston Student Association (x-8521) if you have any questions or student concerns.
