Volunteer Programs

Please contact Lisa Loegering at loege005@umn.edu about these volunteer opportunities unless otherwise noted.

1. Coats for Kids. The Care and Share is currently seeking to address the very obvious need for winter wear for kids in this area. Winter coats, boots, mittens, and snow pants in GOOD, CLEAN condition are needed now. Drop offs should be identified as Coats for Kids and brought to the front door at Care and Share, 220 East 3rd Street, now. Distribution of coats will be in early October. For more information, please contact Carol at 281-2644. If anyone is going home this weekend and wants to help “clean some closets, you can drop off items at Lisa Loegering’s office, 240 Sargeant Student Center, and I’ll get them to the Care and Share.

2. Salvation Army Bell Ringers are needed Saturday, December 8 at Walmart from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. A sign-up sheet is on Lisa Loegering’s bulletin board near 240 Sargeant Student Center. If a weekday afternoon works better for you club, we can add additional time during the week. This is the Salvation Army’s biggest fundraiser, so let’s help them out again this year!

3. Sun, Country, and You, an animal-assisted activities and therapy program that reaches out to people who have developmental, physical or health disabilities is looking for students to assist with chores. The farm includes a large variety of animals, as well as therapy gardens. This is a fabulous opportunity! Please call Eliesha Owens at 218-521-0056 for more information or to volunteer.

4. Do you love your career? Are you having a fantastic experience at UMC? Would you like to share your experiences and wisdom with high school students? Faculty, staff, and students, please consider volunteering during your lunch hour one or more Thursdays at Crookston High School through the Achieve More Project! For more information, please contact Janessa DeBoer at 281-8673 or deboe053@umn.edu.

Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs Listening Session

Monday, November 26 in Kiehle 116

As part of the search process for the new Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs position, the campus is conducting a series of listening sessions to gather input related to characteristics we should be looking for with the new person. Leaders have heard feedback concerning both people with conflicts as well as people who may not be included in any of the groups. As a result, they have added an open section for anyone on campus from 8:00 to 8:30 am. The full schedule is given below. Questions, contact search committee co-chair Bill Peterson (bpeterso@umn.edu).

8:00 - 8:30 Open session for anyone
8:30 - 9:00 CSA Executive Board
9:00 - 9:30 Executive Board
9:30 - 10:00 Department heads
10:00 - 12:30 Break
12:30 - 1:00 Faculty Assembly Consultative Committee
1:00 - 1:30 Direct reports
1:30 - 2:00 LAE Department
2:00 - 2:30 Business Department
2:30 - 3:00 MST Department
3:00 - 3:30 Ag/NatR Department

QUESTIONS TO BE ASKED:
1. What characteristics are important in a new Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs?
2. What are key challenges and opportunities the new person will need to address?

Question #1: What is the name of a program held on Wednesday 28, which is sponsored by S.P.A.C.E.?
Question #2: How was your Thanksgiving Day?
Question #3: Lists the three days of the performance “Smoke & Mirrors.”
Did you know…..?

1. More deaths are caused each year by tobacco use than by all deaths from human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), illegal drug use, alcohol use, motor vehicle injuries, suicides, and murders combined.

2. The cigarette industry spends billions each year on advertising and promotions. They have to do this because the product they are selling kills their customers; so they have to find new customers to replace the ones who have died.
   - $9.94 billion total spent in 2008
   - $27 million spent a day in 2008

Golden Eagles Have 17 Student-Athletes Recognized on 2012 NSIC Fall All-Academic Team

by Shawn Smith, Sports Information Director

BURNSVILLE, Minn. – The University of Minnesota, Crookston had 17 student-athletes named to the 2012 Fall Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) All-Academic Teams. To be eligible for this honor, the student-athlete must be a member of the varsity traveling team and have a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 or better. Furthermore, the athlete must have reached sophomore athletic and academic standing at her/his institution (true freshmen, red-shirt freshmen and ineligible athletic transfers are not eligible) and must have completed at least one full academic year at that institution.

The UMC football team was the most represented fall sport of all UMC athletic teams as they had eight student-athletes recognized while the volleyball team followed close behind with six. The UMC soccer team had six representatives on the All-NSIC Fall Academic Team.

Sports considered for the Fall Academic All-NSIC Team are: men’s and women’s cross country, football, soccer and volleyball.

New Brain Teasers

This week the Eagle’s Eye introduces new Brain teasers, which is called “Rebus Puzzles.” A REBUS is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is? Example)

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Can you guess? That’s great! Now wake up your brain and best guess what is it below:

Nobody guessed the correct answer to last week’s puzzle. The correct answer was “World without end.” Winner can pick up a free movie pass from Meloni in 236 Sargeant Student Center. If you think you know the answer of this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to meloni (melonir@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, November 29, 2012. The winner’s name will appear in the December 3, 2012 Eagle’s Eye.

Enactus is currently seeking talent from the school body!

If you would like to take a leadership position in one of the most active student organizations on campus, now is your time to get involved. Enactus is a worldwide organization that focuses on creating a better world through “entrepreneurship in action.” The UMC Enactus team has claimed 13 consecutive Regional Championships, and leadership positions look very appealing on a resume. In addition, you will be immersed in an energetic environment that develops strong team skills in its membership.

If interested, please contact Alex Buscher at busch206@umn.edu.

UMC Enactus is driven by volunteers, and no members of any position elicit pay for their duties.
