Reception for Online Graduates

Nearly 40 online graduates are expected. Faculty and staff are especially encouraged to stop by to meet these students, many of whom will be on campus for the very first time, and to welcome our online graduates. Refreshments and hors d’oeuvres will be served. At 11:45 all online grads are encouraged to assemble in the Prairie Room for a group photo with Chancellor Wood. Sponsored by the Center for Adult Learning.

Commencement Photos with Graduates, Family, and Friends

A professional photographer has been contracted to take individual graduate and family/friend photos with graduates from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in rooms A and B of Bede Ballroom, Sargeant Student Center on Saturday, May 10. All graduates are encouraged to have a posed photograph taken during this time prior to the commencement ceremony in Lysaker Gymnasium. There is no sitting fee.

A few weeks after the ceremony, a proof of these photos and an order form will be e-mailed to each graduate. At that time, you may order photos from the photo studio. There is no obligation to order photos.

Please note: audience members should avoid crowding the stage or aisle ways throughout the commencement ceremony.

Commencement Ceremonies for the Class of 2014

The 2014 class marks the 106th graduating class since the very first in 1909, the 47th graduating class as an institution of higher learning, and the 21st graduating class as a baccalaureate university. It is also the 20th anniversary of the granting of the first bachelors degrees at UMC.

Commencement ceremonies for the Class of 2014 begin at 2 p.m. in Lysaker Gymnasium, UMC Sports Center. Doors will open at 1 p.m.
