Tent City: a very successful community project despite unfavorable weather

Tent City hosted by Office of Community Engagement and Office of Diversity and Multicultural Programs on Friday turned out to be a very successful and educative community project. The program did not turn out to be like it was planned it earlier. The plan was to built tent and experience how it is to live in tents like the homeless do. However, due to expected rain on Friday evening, the event was modified. The rain could not harm much as the UMC student volunteers, Lisa Loegering from Office of Community Engagement, Lorna Hollowell from the office of Diversity and Multicultural Program, and VISTA representative Katie Schneider were very tenacious and focused on what they were doing. The weather was not very favorable but the organizers felt it went great and the students had a great night and really enjoyed the events activities. Katie Schneider, one of the organizer said, “I myself was personally humbled by the experience of eating in a soup kitchen and hear on the stories from the individuals really impacted me as a person.” A student community advisor, Sujan Pradhan who brought his residents to the program said that he was very glad he and his residents came along as it was very educational and wonderful experience. Sujan who is from Nepal, added, “It was very fascinating to know that country like U.S.A. has so many homeless people. However, I was even more fascinated by the stories I heard from some of the homeless people. I think we should learn something from them and do something for those people in whatever ways I can. Tonight I am going to sleep with huge satisfaction.” Despite interesting stories, everyone really enjoyed the delicious soup and the soup just added colors to the doom weather. Students were looking very enthusiastic and satisfied. If you want to volunteer please contact Lisa Loegering for upcoming community service opportunities.

Ag Industries Club Active in Community Service and Having Fun

The UMC Ag Industries Club recently took part cleaning road ditches along its Adopt a Highway section. The club has nearly 20 years of service with this particular volunteer project. Members of the club also had a chance to socialize at last week’s club-sponsored trap shoot event at the Crookston Gun Club. It was the 18th annual event with a record turnout and an exciting shootout between Sam Jacobson and Kyle Nelson, both freshmen Ag Systems Management students, for the top spot. Kyle won the shootout but both had 23/25 kills in regular trap competition.
Because of You

by Emily

Dear Mystery Blood Donor,

I just wanted to say thank you for taking a little time out of your day to donate blood.

Because of you I was given the chance to live. Without your blood donation I would not be alive.

Because of you, I was able to learn how to play sports.

Because of you I was able to graduate from high school and move on to college to further my education.

Because of you, hopefully one day I will be saving lives, like you did, by helping others in the medical field. If I haven’t mentioned it enough thank you, because you changed my life.

UMC – you have a chance to help those with stories similar to Emily’s by donating blood

Sheetz Wins First-Ever Tournament as Golden Eagles Place Second in Four Team Field at BSU Invitational

By Shawn D. Smith

University of Minnesota Crookston women’s golfer Katie Sheetz (So., Grand Rapids, Minn.) took home her first individual collegiate tournament title after shooting an 83 in the one-round Bemidji State University Invitational Friday at the Bemidji Town and Country Club on the North Shore of Lake Bemidji in Bemidji, Minn. The Golden Eagles placed second out of the four team field that included two Bemidji State squads and Minnesota State University Moorhead.

Sheetz’ previous high placing was a second-place finish at the BSU Invitational last season after shooting an 82.

Bemidji State University’s first squad took home the team title for the day after shooting a 340 as a team. The Golden Eagles shot 378 overall to place second. Freshman Baillee Hauser (Fr., Raymond, Minn.) had her first top 10 finish of her career after shooting a 93. Jacy Christenson (Sr., Shoreview, Minn.) shot a 101, as did Rikki Roscoe (So., Big Stone City, S.D.) to tie for 16th. Kelly Gustofson (Sr., Hermantown, Minn.) shot 115 to finish 20th.

The Golden Eagles will wrap up the fall season next weekend with the NSIC Fall Championship in Brainerd, Minn. Oct. 5-6.
Brain Teasers

A rebus is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is? Example:

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Last week’s winner is Haley Koubsky. The correct answer was “Space Invaders.” Pick up your movie pass from Meloni in 236 SSC. If you think you know the answer to this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to meloni (meloni@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, October 3, 2013. The winner’s name will appear in the Ocotber 7, 2013 Eagle’s Eye.
