Homecoming 2013 Royalty Crowned
By Elizabeth Tollefson

On Wednesday, October 2, 2013, the University of Minnesota Crookston crowned Homecoming royalty in an evening that celebrated the 20-year anniversary of four-year degrees. Crowned homecoming queen was Kayla Bellrichard, a junior double majoring in management and marketing from Elk River, Minn. Homecoming king honors went to Brant Moore, a senior majoring in management from St. Paul, Minn.

Attendants included Ashley Hoffman, a senior double majoring in ag business and agronomy from Debs, Minn., Katelyn Johnson, a senior majoring in animal science pre-vet from Monticello, Minn., Ashley Manusos, a junior majoring in sport and recreation management from McHenry, Ill., and Haley Weleski, a senior majoring in communication from Lancaster, Minn. Joining them were Ben Genereux, a senior majoring in agronomy with a minor in ag business from Crookston, Minn., Justin Goodroad, a junior majoring in agricultural education from Lindstrom, Minn., Jesse Jennings, a senior majoring in criminal justice from Robbinsdale, Minn., and Tyler Lowthian, a junior majoring in management from Richfield, Minn.

SCIENCE and THEOLOGY?

There is a tremendous interest in the discussion and intersection between science and faith: How do these two interact? Which is true? How can we make sense of the differences between the two fields? How does religion really fits with science? Do you wonder what modern science has to do with ancient spiritual texts? Does accepting what science tells us mean we have to throw out our religious beliefs?

Bring your tough questions Saturday, October 12! The Science and Theology event, sponsored in part by Campus Ministry, is from 6 - 7 p.m. in the Prairie Room.

This is a Golden Eagle Nation Event. By attending you will be entered into the drawing held in March for $1,000 or a $1,000 Learning Abroad Travel Voucher. Free Pizza too!

Dan Wolpert, pastor of First Presbyterian Church will be presenting. He holds a Masters of Divinity degree from San Francisco Theological Seminary as well as a degree in genetics from University of California Berkeley.

Golden Eagle Volleyball Sweeps Perennial NSIC Power Minnesota State 3-0  By Shawn Smith

If the University of Minnesota Crookston’s 3-0 (25-20, 25-15, 25-23) sweep of perennial Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference volleyball power Minnesota State University, Mankato looked familiar, that is because it should. The Golden Eagles swept the Mavericks 3-0 just two years ago on Sept. 30, 2011 in what was widely considered one of the program’s best victories ever over then No. 13 Minnesota State. That match also took place on homecoming and the outcome was the same, the only difference was the Mavericks did not come into the match ranked.

The Golden Eagles came out from the gate poised to get a win over Minnesota State, a match many UMC players had marked on their calendars. UMC out-hit the Mavericks .286 to .147 for the match led by a balanced attack by Brittany Looker (Jr., OH, Rochester, Minn./Health Sciences), who had 12 kills while Morgan VanGerpen (Jr., MH, Overland Park, Kan./Elementary Education) was both a force offensively and defensively as she had nine kills and hit .600 for the match with no errors and also led the UMC block with five solo blocks and a block assist. Alexandra Skeeter (Sr., OH, Milwaukee, Wis./Health Sciences) added eight kills and hit .300 while Maggie Perrel (Fr., RS, New Germany, Minn./Biology) chipped in seven kills and hit .375.

UMC played phenomenal in system led by a strong game from freshman Sierra Trost (S, Ham Lake, Minn./Biology) who continues to progress for UMC as she had 35 assists. Defensively, Chelsea Wiesner (Sr., Lib., Rochester, Minn./Health Sciences) added eight digs and hit .300 while Maggie Perrel (Fr., RS, New Germany, Minn./Biology) chipped in seven kills and hit .375.

In the tenth edition of the “Battle for the Hub Cap” between the University of Minnesota Crookston (UMC) Golden Eagles and the Bemidji State University (BSU) Beavers, the Golden Eagles won for the first time with a final score of 16-14. It was a cold, rainy Saturday afternoon at Ed Widseth Field in Crookston, Minn. The game was decided by a safety with 1:25 left in the game. Avery Walker could never get out of the end zone for BSU and was brought down by Tyler Hansen (Jr., DB/P, Morris, Minn./Natural Resources) a yard into the end zone. The win was also UMC’s second-consecutive homecoming victory.

The homecoming victory over the Beavers gave the UMC their first win of the season, bringing their record to 1-4. It was Coach Mike Fritz’s first collegiate victory. BSU dropped to 2-3 following the loss.
Highlights From Homecoming 2013
Brain Teasers

A REBUS is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is? Example)

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Last week’s winner is Sujan Pradhan. The correct answer was “Split Level.” Pick up your movie pass from Meloni in 236 SSC. If you think you know the answer to this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to meloni (melonir@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, October 10, 2013. The winner’s name will appear in the October 14, 2013 Eagle’s Eye.
