Over 1,000 US colleges and universities in recognizing the importance of campus alcohol prevention efforts. NCAAW is the foundation to building a comprehensive program that keeps alcohol abuse prevention at the forefront and assists students in finding support for alcohol-related issues. Alcohol abuse prevention is not a one-week activity; promoting responsible alcohol consumption is a year round effort. Please be a part of it and be proud of yourself.

UMC Student Open Forum to provide input on proposed UMC Wellness Center

In the next week or two you will see an email encouraging the whole campus to complete a survey which will help guide the UMC Wellness Center Steering Committee. Besides that survey, we are asking any students who are interested to attend a focus session to meet with members of the steering committee to provide additional input in person.

Please attend the appropriate open forum for you:

Monday, October 21 in Kiehle Auditorium
-6:30 - 7:30 p.m. At-Large UMC Students
-7:30 - 8:30 p.m. UMC Student Athletes

This will be an opportunity to voice your opinion regarding the UMC Wellness Center, which will have a transformational effect on our campus.

Huge victory for Golden Eagle athletics with a big 20-14 win over MSU Moorhead in football and a big 3-1 win for volleyball over U-Mary

Crookston Civic Music League Entertainment Series 2013-2014 presents the Abrams Brothers - Saturday, October 26 - 10 FREE tickets available

The CCML presents the Abrams Brothers on Saturday, October 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Crookston High School Auditorium. UMC’s Concerts and Lectures has 10 FREE tickets available to UMC Students on a first come first serve basis. For tickets contact Meloni in 236 Sargeant Student Center.

The Abrams Brothers are fourth-generation musicians with musical roots reaching back to their great-grandparents. They grew up playing music in an atmosphere where general family musical collaborations are tradition. Comprised of Jon (vocals, guitar), James (vocals, fiddle), and cousin Elijah (bass), this young Ontario, Canada based Americana/Bluegrass band pairs rich musical background with a youthful exuberance. Live Performance veterans dating back to the ages of 11 an 9, The Abrams Brothers have already racked up some impressive credits including being the youngest Canadians to appear on Nashville’s iconic Grand Ole Opry.

UM Crookston Team Wins First Place in Wildlife Quiz Bowl at the Annual Conference of The Wildlife Society held October 5-10, 2013, in Milwaukee, Wis.

By Elizabeth Tollefson

It was down to the last few seconds when the answer to a question on herpetology led the University of Minnesota Crookston to victory in the Wildlife Quiz Bowl held at the annual conference of The Wildlife Society. The conference contest, held in Milwaukee, Wis., was a big win for the UM Crookston over a team from Humboldt State University (HSU), Arcata, Calif., a perennial favorite.

Coached by John Loegering and Vanessa Lane, the team of natural resources majors was led by captain Matt Toenies, a senior from Randall, Minn. Other members included Jennifer DuBay, a senior from Apple Valley, Minn.; Alisha Mosloff, a junior from Thief River Falls, Minn.; Emily Trappe, a senior from International Falls, Minn.; and Jacob Nelson, a senior from Lake Park, Minn. They competed through four rounds with sixteen other teams from across the country and finished against HSU with a final score of 105 to 100.

Loegering was proud of the team’s professionalism and performance. “Our team won on a question in herpetology, taught by Vanessa Lane, and it’s a class we just started offering this fall,” Loegering says. “Our students were exemplary and Vanessa and I could not be more proud of the way they competed and represented the University of Minnesota Crookston.” Students attending had an opportunity to visit the Leopold Shack and International Crane Foundation while at the conference along with valuable opportunities to network and meet professionals in the field.

CROOKSTON, Minn. - The University of Minnesota Crookston athletic department fielded a team that competed in the inaugural United Way of Crookston/New Flyer of America Community Bus Pull Wednesday in the parking lot of Crookston High School.

Crookston High School fielded two teams while UMC and RiverView Health also fielded teams. The rules were that each team could have up to 12 participants to see who could pull a New Flyer bus 60 feet across the parking lot. The event was to promote the United Way of Crookston with the winner of the community bus pull getting to take on a team from New Flyer of America the following week with the winner also receiving a trophy.

The Golden Eagles fielded the winning team made up of 10 UMC football student-athletes and two staff members who pulled the bus 60 feet in 12.10 seconds. The winning team consisted of; UMC Head Men’s Golf Coach and Assistant Athletic Director Jason Tangquist, Assistant Football Coach Sean Knox and football players John Simmons (So., Pillager, Minn.), Joe Machacek (So., Eagan, Minn.), Joshua Perea (Sr., DB, Pico Rivera, Calif.), Mike Maw (Fr., K, White Bear Lake, Minn.), Greg Lofquist (Jr., DL, South St. Paul, Minn.), Josh Hughes (R-Fr., OL, Weeki Wachee, Fla.), Anthony Peterson (R-Fr., DL, Swanville, Minn.), Sam Smith (Jr., OL, South St. Paul, Minn.), Tyler Bos (Sr., DL, Larchwood, Iowa) and Jacob Pinder (Jr., TE, Orlando, Fla.)

UMC is currently in the middle of a campaign to help raise money for the United Way of Crookston in which they are hoping to achieve an overall donation of $11,000 as a campus.

Complete the following sentences:
Most people don’t know I’m really very good at: drawing
If I could change one thing about the world: I would change how people view agriculture and make them recognize the importance of it. Generations are consistently becoming further and further away from farms and without knowledge of it issues are going to come up with how we feed the world when over half the populations doesn’t recognize farming’s importance. It surprises people that I am a farm girl
One best thing about UMC: The people are the thing I like most about campus, not only the students but also faculty and staff.
One thing you would change about UMC: I would like to see a larger population of involved students on campus so that it is not always the same people involved in all areas of campus.

Spotlight on Clubs

Club Name: Lions Club
President: Amanda Thompson/ Katie Hagen, Co-Presidents
Number of members: 17
Objective of Club: The mission statement for Lions is to empower volunteers to serve their communities, meet humanitarian needs, encourage peace and promote international understanding through Lions clubs.
Club’s activities: UMC Lions members volunteer at the Food Bank, participate in campus clean-up, assist the Noon Day Lions with projects, help Villa St. Vincent members with computer needs, clean parks, and collect books for the WorldWide Book Drive – just to name a few.
How this club in impacting UMC: Lions members are making a positive impact on the community and promoting the importance of engagement within the UMC and Crookston communities.
Why should student join this club: Because Lions is FUN, Stress-Free, and you get to ROAR!! It feels good to make a difference.
One thing this club wants to do in UMC: Lions doesn’t focus on just one event or project, but rather focuses on getting involved in a variety of projects- both on and off campus.
Brain Teasers

A REBUS is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is? Example:

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Nobody correctly guessed last week’s puzzle. The correct answer was “Outnumbered 3 to 1.” If you think you know the answer to this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to meloni (meloni@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, October 24, 2013. The winner’s name will appear in the October 28, 2013 Eagle’s Eye.
