Golden Eagle Baseball to Hold Sixth Annual Fundraiser Dinner on November 7

By Chris Vito

(Crookston, Minn.)- The University of Minnesota Crookston Baseball program will be hosting its sixth annual fundraiser dinner at the Crookston Eagles Club on Thurs., Nov. 7. Cost of the dinner is $35 for either prime rib or walleye. All proceeds will benefit the Golden Eagle Baseball program. A social will be held at 6 p.m. with dinner at 6:30 p.m. Shortly thereafter, a program will be held with special guest speaker Mayville State University head baseball coach Scott Berry. A legendary coach, Berry is no stranger to baseball fans throughout the area.

A native of LaMoure, N.D., Coach Berry lettered and was named all-conference four times for Mayville State University under legendary head coach Al Meyer. He will be entering his 32nd season of leading the Comets. His teams have won 21 conference championships (including 17 straight), 18 conference play-off championships and made 22 appearances in the national playoffs. He personally earned NAIA District 12 or Region III Coach of the Year honors on 11 different occasions and conference coach of the year 19 times, including both the 2005 NAIA Region III and DAC-10 Coach of the Year award. Coach Berry earned Dakota Athletic Conference Coach of the Year honors again after the 2011 season. He is currently the tenth all-time winningest coach in NAIA. He achieved his 900th victory on September 29 with a 9-1 victory over Valley City State University.

In 1999, Berry was recognized by his NAIA Great Plains Region coaching peers as being the Great Plains Region Coach of the Year. In 2001, Berry was named Region 3 Coach of the year. The NAIA awarded Berry with its highest honor by inducting him into the NAIA Hall of Fame for Baseball in 2002. In 2003, Berry was named to his third Hall of Fame by being inducted into the North Dakota Amateur Baseball Association Hall of Fame. In 2009, Berry was inducted into the Christian Sports Commission Hall of Fame; his fourth Hall of Fame award in his tenure at Mayville State. In 2010, the baseball field at Mayville State University was named in his honor. In 2010, Berry received the NAIA Robert E. Smith Achievement Award. This award is presented to an NAIA coach or administrator who has demonstrated unselfish promotion of NAIA baseball. In 2011, Berry was selected to the FCA Jerry Kindall Character in Coaching Award. This award is presented annually to the college or high school baseball coach who best exemplifies the Christian principles of Character, Integrity, Excellence, Teamwork and Service on and off the baseball field.

Brain Teasers

A REBUS is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is? Example)

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Last week’s winner is Ryan Rynda. The correct answer was “Try to Understand.” Ryan can pick up his FREE movie pass from Meloni in 236 Sargeant Student Center. If you think you know the answer to this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to meloni (melonir@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, October 31, 2013. The winner’s name will appear in the November 4, 2013 Eagle’s Eye.
