Community and Law Enforcement Dialogue

On Tuesday, February 10, UMC will host a Community and Law Enforcement Dialogue from noon to 1:30 p.m. in Bede Ballroom, Sargeant Student Center. Campus and local community members are invited to join in on this discussion of national and local issues with a panel of local and regional law enforcement personnel.

In an effort to narrow down the topics for this initial discussion, we would like to ask the campus community for their input on potential questions and topics of discussion. Our plan would be to integrate frequently asked questions and suggested topics into this event. Based on available time, we will try to balance the depth and breath of these topics. We will plan future events around topics needing more time for deeper discussion.

We encourage you to attend and engage in this community dialogue. Bring your lunch and additional questions. Beverages and light snacks will be provided.

Lubke Basket with 13 Seconds Left in Overtime Lifts Golden Eagles in Crazy Finish Against Sioux Falls 73-70

by Shawn Smith

Derrick Redd, Jr. (Jr., G, Menifee, Calif./Sports and Rec Management) found fifth-year senior Tim Lubke (G, St. Paul, Minn./Sports and Rec Management) with 13 seconds remaining in overtime as the University of Minnesota Crookston won a wild one at Lysaker Gymnasium 73-70 over University of Sioux Falls. Lubke would sink the contested lay-up and make both free throws as the Golden Eagles snapped a nine-game losing streak to move to 7-14 (5-12 NSIC), as Sioux Falls fell to 7-16 (4-13 NSIC).

The overtime win came on the heels of a highly eventful end to regulation for the Golden Eagles and Cougars. Up 60-57 with 1:43 left, Sioux Falls would cut the lead to 60-59 with a lay-up by Charles Ward with 36 seconds remaining. UMC would miss both free throws, giving the ball back to the Cougars, where they would send Zach Wessels to the charity stripe. Wessels would hit 1-of-2 to tie up the game 60-60.

After a missed jumper by Redd with six seconds remaining, Tyler West, Jr. (Sr., G/F, Portland, Ore./Communications) would accidentally foul Ward with three seconds left, sending him to the charity stripe. Sioux Falls’ leading scorer would sink both free throws, giving USF a 62-60 advantage.

UMC would pass the ball across to half court to John Hughes (Jr., F, San Diego, Calif./Management), where they would call timeout. After another timeout. Kevin Larson (Sr., G, New Ulm, Minn./Sports and Rec Management) would inbound the ball. Larson’s pass would nearly go through the rim but would ricochet off of the rim where Redd found the ball from quite a ways out and tipped the ball in. The play was reviewed several times, as the game clock had originally expired but official’s deemed that nobody had touched the ball so the shot clock shouldn’t have gone off and Redd’s made basket was legal.

In overtime, UMC would take the 69-68 lead after a Redd free throw but Sioux Falls would take the lead back 70-69 with 25 seconds left as Jordan Stotts made the bucket, giving UMC one last chance, where Lubke would take advantage and make the shot off the assist from Redd and make both free throws after being fouled by Mack Johnson.

Minnesota Crookston would play without three starters in overtime who had fouled out, but would out-score Sioux Falls 11-8.

The Golden Eagles were led on the game by Redd, who played one of his best games of his career with 26 points on 9-of-14 shooting from the field, 2-of-3 from beyond the arc and 6-of-9 from the free-throw line. Redd added five rebounds and four assists.

Kevin Larson (Sr., G, New Ulm, Minn./Sports and Rec Management) also played of the strongest games of his career, despite foul trouble. Larson had 19 points, five rebounds and three assists. Larson was 4-of-5 from beyond the arc.

Lubke came off the bench for 10 points on 3-of-6 shooting from the field and 2-of-5 from beyond the arc.

The Golden Eagles were 24-of-47 for 51.1 percent from the field and 11-of-22 for 50 percent from beyond the arc. They struggled from the charity stripe, shooting just 14-of-23 for 60.9 percent.

Three UMC Players Record Double-Doubles in 78-54 Win Over Mustangs by Ryan Haggstrom

The University of Minnesota Crookston Golden Eagles were able to overcome a slow first half to defeat the Southwest Minnesota State Mustangs Saturday evening at Lysaker Gymnasium. Ebony Livingston’s big first half helped the Golden Eagles on their way to a 78-54 victory. Three players would finish the night for UMC with double-doubles as Alexa Thielman (Jr., G, Buffalo, Minn./Health Science), Emily Gruber (Fr., F/C, Monticello, Minn./Undecided) and Katrina Moenkedick (Jr., F, Perham, Minn./Applied Studies) all accomplished the milestone. It is a rare occurrence to have three players obtain double-doubles in a single game for the same team.

The Golden Eagles improve to 11-11 (10-8 NSIC) with the win, and now have sole possession of third place in the NSIC North as they battle to host the first round of the NSIC Tournament. UMC also accomplished 11 wins, marking the first time UMC has had 11 or more wins since the 2010-11 season. The Golden Eagle’s all-time leading scorer Jamie Zelinsky, who led the team that season, was in attendance for Saturday’s Alumni game as UMC accomplished the milestone.

A balanced scoring attack and rebounding force was the defining trait for the Golden Eagles. All five starters scored in double figures and four of the five starters had seven or more rebounds. Gruber topped the scoring chart with 17 points and added 11 board. Thielman led the way on the glass with 12 rebounds and tallied 13 points, while Moenkedick finished with 10 points and 11 boards. Livingston would notch 13 points and seven baords and Micaela Noga (Fr., G, Parkers Prairie, Minn./Health Management) would round out the starters with 11 points on the evening.

The Golden Eagles got things rolling early to get a lead of 6-2. It did not take long for Southwest to get back in front through a few mid-range jumpers. After an Ashley Martell (Sr., G, Somerset, Wis./Health Science)three-pointer UMC entered the first media timeout with a 12-11 lead.

With SMSU doing nothing to stop the Golden Eagles on the offensive boards, they were able to bring their lead back to 14 and beyond. At the under 5 timeout UMC led 66-47. Thielman and Gruber had double-doubles at this point.

With the rotational players getting some extended playing time, the Golden Eagles were able to continue outscoring SMSU and the game ended 78-54.

Brain Teasers

A REBUS is a picture representation of a name, work, or phrase. Each “rebus” puzzle box portrays a common word or phrase. Can you guess what it is? Example)

Answer for Head HEELS: Since the word HEAD is over the word HEELS, the answer to the puzzle would be HEAD OVER HEELS!

Answer for Corporate: Because the word Corporate is getting smaller, the answer to the puzzle would be Corporate Downsizing!

Laura Gabrielson is last week’s winner. She knew last week’s puzzle was “Man in the Moon.” She can pick up her free movie pass from Meloni in 236 Sargeant Student Center. If you think you know the answer to this week’s Rebus, send an e-mail to Meloni (melonir@umn.edu). A winner will be chosen from the correct answers. The winner will receive a free ticket to the Grand Theatre in Crookston. Email your answer to Meloni prior to noon on Thursday, February 12, 2015. The winner’s name will appear in the February 16, 2015 Eagle’s Eye.
