What's On Wednesday (W.O.W)
Brandon Vestal, September 3 at 7:00 p.m.

Comedian Brandon Vestal will be performing in Kiehle Auditorium on Wednesday, September 3, 2014 at 7:00 p.m. as part of the W.O.W. series.

About Brandon: After working on his Southern accent in Oklahoma for most of his youth, Comedian-Actor Brandon Vestal discovered stand up comedy as his calling and took his talents on the road, quickly establishing himself as one of the best comic talents in the country. Ultimately landing in Los Angeles, he says he loves the sun and the beaches, but not the congestion. “It’s not even being in traffic in LA that ticks me off,” he pines. “It’s the guy on the radio that tells you about the traffic you’re sitting in”.

Vestal has made is mark in the world of Comedy Competitions and Festivals, duking it out on the competitive comedy scene. He was the winner of the Hollywood Comedy Festival, crowned “Best of the West” at the Detroit Comedy Festival, a finalist at the World Series of Comedy in Las Vegas, and featured at the Asheville Comedy Festival two years running. And after his years in the trenches, this insightful storyteller’s work has really begun to pay off. Brandon has appeared on NBC’s Last Comic Standing, Man Up Stand Up, and Comedy Time TV. He can also be heard on XM/ Sirius’s “Blue Collar” and “Raw Dog” channels as well as The Bob & Tom Show. And soon to come is his new CD on the prestigious Uproar Entertainment label.

Brandon Vestal’s low key, cynical, deeply personal and honest style has made him a fast favorite in the comedy world, a “Don’t Miss” for college audiences, and a club favorite. He puts on an amazing show and is a definite must see.

Music on Monday (M.O.M.) Scott Wesley, September 8, 2014

Scott Wesley will perform on Monday, September 8 from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in the Northern Lights Lounge of the Sargeant Student Center.

It’s 2014 and Scott Wesley finds himself with a rapidly growing fan-base, an official SXSW performance under his belt and a busy college performance schedule.

Scott developed a buzz early on in his career with his first album release “Open Eyes”. The entire album was licensed by Microsoft for various products and this company continues to use his songs today. His second release “Seconds To Years” has been widely appreciated and appealing to the college crowd with each track creating a diverse sound in the pop/rock genre.

Having performed at over 60 colleges & universities, Scott’s plans are to continue touring and delighting campuses everywhere with his high energy show. When Scott isn’t on the road, he’s at his Nashville home writing full time.

This event is sponsored by S.P.A.C.E.

September 2014’s Recovery Month

UMC’s Alcohol Tobacco and Other Drugs (ATOD) program and RiverView Recovery have planned September 2014’s Recovery Month. This year’s events include a concert by an award winning musician, a recovery celebration with fireworks, a talk from one of recovery’s strongest voices for treatment and recovery, and a public screening of a new, ground-breaking documentary on the topic of addiction and recovery in America. Note below:

1. Friday September 12th, 6:30 p.m. at RiverView Recovery on Hwy 2 East of Crookston, recovery speakers, the Sky Blues band and fireworks.

2. Thursday, September 18th a free public showing of the new documentary “The Anonymous People”, featuring Third Rock from the Sun’s Kristen Johnston, will be held at 7:00 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium.

3. Monday, September 22nd at 7:00 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium, William Cope Moyers, the son of the distinguished American journalist Bill Moyers, takes the stage with his much sought after experience, strength and hope about addiction and recovery. Mr. Moyer’s is the VP of Public Affairs and Community Relations for the Hazelden

4. Wednesday, September 24th, singer Mike Farris performs in Kiehle Auditorium at 7:00 p.m. Farris was the winner of the 2008 American Music Association’s Award for “Best New or Emerging Artist”.

Local Recovery Month events are made possible through generous sponsorship from the UMC Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drugs (ATOD) education program, the UMC Career Development and Counseling Department, UMC Concerts and Lectures, UMC Campus Ministries, The Glenmore Foundation, and RiverView Recovery – a division of RiverView Health.
News from Student Health

Welcome New and Returning Students!

Student Health is located at 145F in the Sargeant Student Center in the doorway next to the big screen TV. It is staffed by a Registered Nurse, Stacey Grunewald, who is on campus Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. There is no charge to visit the nurse and there are various over the counter medications available free of charge. You are welcomed to stop by anytime during office hours, however, it is helpful to make an appointment by calling 281-8512 or emailing Stacey at sgrunewa@umn.edu.

There is also a family physician, Dr. Balaraman, who will be on campus Tuesdays from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and Thursdays from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. There is No Charge to be seen by him. You must make an appointment to see the doctor by calling Stacey, 281-8512.

Again, Welcome and have a Safe and Healthy Semester!!

The First Thursday of every month from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the Student Health office, 145F Polk County Public Health will be on campus to offer STD testing and Family Planning Services. If you are interested in starting the birth control pill, the Depo Provera shot or getting an STD check, you now will be able to take care of this on campus! You will also be able to get your pap smear done at this time. Contact Stacey Grunewald, 8512 for information regarding this.

Local Clinics in Crookston: There are two local clinics located in Crookston to help you with your health care needs.

RiverView Health is located within the RiverView Hospital at 323 S. Minnesota Street and is open 8:00 am to 4:30 p.m. You can call 281-9595 for an appointment.

Altru, Crookston is the other local clinic and is located adjacent to RiverView Hospital at 400 S. Minnesota Street and is open 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. You can call 218-9100 for an appointment.

Polk County Public Health: PCPH is located at 721 S. Minnesota Street and is a facility that can assist you with your family planning needs, such as birth control pills, pregnancy testing, STD screening, pap smears, etc. They charge based on a sliding fee scale which means you pay based on your income. It is a very affordable option. You can make an appointment to see the Family Planning Nurse by calling 281-3385.

STD Testing & Birth Control Options will now be available at UMC Student Health.

The first Thursday of every month from 10:00 am to 11:30 am.

Polk County Public Health will be providing these services for students.

Contact Stacey Grunewald, 281.8512, for more information.

Home Delivered Meals
Three times a year we are asked to assist a very worthwhile program, Home Delivered Meals. Our next week to deliver meals is September 2 - 5. Meals need to be picked up at the Employee Entrance on the west end of RiverView Hospital at 11:30 a.m. The deliveries usually take about 30 minutes. You can expect to be back at UMC by 12:15 p.m. If you aren’t all that familiar with Crookston, don’t worry! You are provided with a map and very specific directions. Grab a friend to help navigate!

The Home Delivered Meals program allows the elderly more independence by allowing them to stay in their homes longer. This program can’t run without volunteers like you! The recipients are extremely grateful for this service. If you are able to help out, contact Lisa Loegering (loege005@umn.edu), and let me know what day(s) work best for you and I will sign you up! Thanks very much!

Volunteers needed for the Uff Da 6-K Mud Run,
September 6, Grand Forks, ND. 5-hour morning and/ or afternoon shifts to monitor race obstacles, cheer on participants while they conquer mud challenges, and serve as emergency support. Volunteers will receive a t-shirt, buff, snacks and if you want to run, a $25 race discount. For more information and to volunteer, please contact Theresa Grijalva at tigrijalva@gra.midco.net.

North Country Food Bank, 315 3rd Avenue, S.W. - It’s been a long summer without UMC volunteers and Russ could use our help! If you have club, team, or other group that would like to pack boxes or backpacks, please call Russ at 280-2926 to set up a time.
