Music on Monday (M.O.M.) Scott Wesley, September 8, 2014

Scott Wesley will perform on Monday, September 8 from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in the Northern Lights Lounge of the Sargeant Student Center.

It’s 2014 and Scott Wesley finds himself with a rapidly growing fan-base, an official SXSW performance under his belt and a busy college performance schedule.

Scott developed a buzz early on in his career with his first album release “Open Eyes”. The entire album was licensed by Microsoft for various products and this company continues to use his songs today. His second release “Seconds To Years” has been widely appreciated and appealing to the college crowd with each track creating a diverse sound in the pop/rock genre.

Having performed at over 60 colleges & universities, Scott’s plans are to continue touring and delighting campuses everywhere with his high energy show. When Scott isn’t on the road, he’s at his Nashville home writing full time.

This event is sponsored by S.P.A.C.E.

September 2014’s Recovery Month

UMC’s Alcohol Tobacco and Other Drugs (ATOD) program and RiverView Recovery have planned September 2014’s Recovery Month. This year’s events include a concert by an award winning musician, a recovery celebration with fireworks, a talk from one of recovery’s strongest voices for treatment and recovery, and a public screening of a new, ground-breaking documentary on the topic of addiction and recovery in America. Note below:

1. Friday September 12, 6:30 p.m. at RiverView Recovery on Hwy 2 East of Crookston, recovery speakers, the Sky Blues band and fireworks.

2. Thursday, September 18 a free public showing of the new documentary “The Anonymous People”, featuring Third Rock from the Sun’s Kristen Johnston, will be held at 7:00 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium.

3. Monday, September 22 at 7:00 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium, William Cope Moyers, the son of the distinguished American journalist Bill Moyers, takes the stage with his much sought after experience, strength and hope about addiction and recovery. Mr. Moyers’ is the VP of Public Affairs and Community Relations for the Hazelden

4. Wednesday, September 24, singer Mike Farris performs in Kiehle Auditorium at 7:00 p.m. Farris was the winner of the 2008 American Music Association’s Award for “Best New or Emerging Artist”.

Local Recovery Month events are made possible through generous sponsorship from the UMC Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drugs (ATOD) education program, the UMC Career Development and Counseling Department, UMC Concerts and Lectures, UMC Campus Ministries, The Glenmore Foundation, and RiverView Recovery – a division of RiverView Health.
UMC Volleyball Takes Maryville Tournament Title With Pair of Wins by Shawn Smith

ST. LOUIS, Mo. - The University of Minnesota Crookston volleyball team finished the Maryville University Invitational with an unblemished mark after defeating West Liberty University 3-1 and rallying from two down to defeat Maryville University, 3-2.

The Golden Eagles started out the day with a dominant performance against West Liberty. The Golden Eagles hit .288 on the day led by another stand out performance from Brittany Looker (Sr., OH, Rochester, Minn.), who hit .373 and had 23 kills on the day. In addition to Looker, setter Sierra Trost (So., S, Ham Lake, Minn.) had 38 assists and added nine kills on the match. Erin Schwarz (So., MH, Eden Prairie, Minn.) also stepped up with seven kills and a .636 hitting percentage.

Defensively, sophomore Casey Cashman (DS/Lib., Ashland, Wis.) had the best performance of her career so far with 25 digs. Looker added nine, as did Trost and Stephanie Pearson (Jr., OH, Frankfort, Ill.). Kelci Green (R-Fr., MH, Anoka, Minn.) and Schwarz each had three block assists on game one.

In match two of the day against Maryville, the Golden Eagles came back after battling from down 2-0 to force a fifth set. UMC would battle to take the set, 16-14, in set five, winning 3-2 (17-25, 17-25, 25-17, 25-11m, 16-14) over the Saints. Looker continued her dominant start to the season as she tallied a career-high 29 kills and hit .304 for the match. In her first four matches of the season, the 2013 All-NSIC First Team performer averaged an astonishing 5.35 kill per set and hitting .304 for the weekend.

In addition to Looker, Schwarz added 10 kills and hit .238 for the match. The team hit .165 for the match led by 52 assists from Trost. Defensively, Pearson led the way with 16 digs, while Looker completed a double-double with 14 digs. Cashman also added 14 digs, while Kaycie Hagen (Fr., S, Savage, Minn.) had 11 digs.

In addition to Looker’s performance, Schwarz had a productive first weekend from middle hitter, averaging 1.75 kills and 1.06 blocks while hitting .304. In addition, Trost averaged 9.88 assists per set, while Mary Mikutowski (Sr., Lib., Stillwater, Minn.) led the team with 3.78 digs per set.

The Golden Eagles will head to the Northern State University Invitational next weekend to take on Minot State University, Southwest Baptist University, St. Cloud State University and Northern State University.

Core Ensemble to Perform New Chamber Music Theatre
Work at the U of M Crookston Celebrating the Lives of Three Significant Latin Women

By Elizabeth Tollefson

On Tuesday, September 16, 2014, the Core Ensemble will perform the chamber music theatre work Tres Vidas at 7 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium at the University of Minnesota Crookston. There is no admission charge and all are welcome.

Chamber Music Theatre is a unique performance format developed by the Core Ensemble featuring a marriage of theatrical narrative to chamber music performance.

Christina Isabel Lucas (in photo) portrays multiple characters while interacting with the onstage musical trio of cello piano and percussion.

A lunch performance of Tres Vidas also will take place at noon in Bede Ballroom, students may use meal cards, faculty and staff $5.50, all others $7.80.

Tres Vidas celebrates the life, times and work of three significant Latin and South American Women: painter Frida Kahlo of Mexico, peasant activist Rufina Amaya of El Salvador and poet Alfonsina Storni of Argentina. With storylines including Frida Kahlo’s dramatic and passionate relationship with painter Diego Rivera, Rufina Amaya’s astounding singular survival of the massacre at El Mozote and Alfonsina Storni’s life long challenges as Argentina’s first great feminist poet,

Tres Vidas presents dramatic situations timeless in their emotional appeal and connection to audiences across all gender and ethnic spectrums.

With a script written by Chilean poet/writer Marjorie Agosin, Tres Vidas offers powerful portrayals of each woman and includes the singing of traditional Mexican folk songs as well as Argentinean popular and tango songs made famous by Mercedes Sosa and Carlos Gardel. Additional music by Astor Piazzolla, Orlando Garcia, Pablo Ortiz, Alice Gomez, Carlos Sanchez-Gutierrez, Michael DeMurga and Osvaldo Golijov round out the musical score.

Since 1993, the Core Ensemble has toured nationally to every region of the United States and internationally to England, Russia, the Ukraine, Australia and the British Virgin Islands. The Ensemble was the recipient of the 2000 Eugene McDermott Award for Excellence in the Arts awarded by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has received support from the State of Florida Department of Cultural Affairs, New England Foundation for the Arts, Palm Beach County Cultural Council, the Aaron Copland Fund for Music and the Virgil Thomson Foundation.
